

WERS 2004 User Group – Second Meeting

Friday 16th March 2007

National Institute of Economic and Social Research
2 Dean Trench Street, Smith Square, London SW1P 3HE

Time	Item	Primary Dataset
10.00am	Registration
10.15am	Welcome and introduction from the WERS 2004 Information and Advice Service
10.30am	Examining the determinants of agency work: do family friendly practices play a role? John S. Heywood, W.S. Siebert and Xiangdong Wei, Birmingham University Business School	Cross-section management interview
11.10am	Coffee
11.30am	A multilevel analysis of workplace job satisfaction in Britain: evidence from linked employer-employee data Getinet Haile, Policy Studies Institute	Cross-section survey of employees
12.10pm	Random and non-random measurement error in HRM research: measuring and explaining differences in management-worker representative responses in WERS 2004 Riccardo Peccei, King's College London	Cross-section worker rep interview and management interview
12.50pm	Buffet lunch
13.35pm	Changing gender and ethnic diversity in the UK workplace: what can we learn from the 2004 WERS? Peter Urwin and Franz Buscha, University of Westminster	Panel interview data and cross-section management interview
14.15pm	Coffee
14.35pm	Training and establishment survival William Collier, Francis Green and Young-Bae Kim, University of Kent	Panel data on establishment survival
15.15pm	Further data matching using WERS 2004 John Forth, WIAS
15.45pm	Close	